Three love stories, a murder mystery, and a nuclear espionage plot converge in this comedy about marriage and other explosive devices. It's 1952: America's on the verge of the H-bomb, Eisenhower's on the campaign trail, and Senator Joe McCarthy's daughter just got engaged to a Soviet spy. A sharp-eyed look at love and tying (and untying, and retying) the knot.

The Spirit Level May 29,2019 $69.00P.P

The Spirit Level at Daytripper's Dinner Theatre This is a lighthearted ghostly comedy. When famous crime writer Jack Cameron and his wife Susie drown in a boating accident, they are refused entry into heaven—Jack being an atheist—so they return to haunt the country cottage where they lived. Life is dull. Their only pleasure comes from spooking the estate agent and frightening away any would-be tenants. Things change when Susie persuades Jack to allow a young couple, Simon, an aspiring crime writer, and Flic, his pregnant wife, to move in. Inevitably Susie and Jack become drawn into their lives and realize there is a lot more going on than writer's block. They try to help the young couple with their problems, but is it enough? Will Jack pray to God during Flic's delivery and in the middle of a snowstorm?
